What is the Brim Worship Workshop?

The Brim Worship Workshop is based upon the newly released book Brim: Creative Overflow in Worship Design by Andra Moran and Suzanne Castle. Brim overflows the confines of conventional worship, incorporating music, film, dance, and visual art. Brim is bursting with interactive stations for prayer and reflection, links to digital resources for liturgical use, and creative content for novice and seasoned worship planners alike. Brim offers ten complete worship services that can be expanded into worship series, as well as helpful how-to's for allowing creativity and art to flow into a new or existing worship gathering. ## Who is Andra Moran?

Andra Moran lives in Nashville, Tennessee where she works as a songwriter, singer, author, worship designer and freelance touring musician. The daughter of two insightful, progressive ministers in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Andra quite literally spent her formative years in sanctuaries and fellowship halls, singing in the children's choir, napping on pews, and later leading music in her youth groups. Andra Moran studied music formally at Belmont University in Nashville, TN. Andra's music (most recently in albums Harmony Grove and Little Miracles) express both a deep faith and a mature sense of self. Andra works actively in ecumenical settings providing music at the local, regional and national levels for a variety of gatherings. She also offers both concerts and consulting services on worship design, music and leadership in churches across the country. Currently, Andra serves Woodmont Christian Church in Nashville as the Creative Director at The Bridge alongside her husband, musician Stephen Daniel King. It's important to note that Andra teaches far more than the nuts and bolts of worship planning: She teaches a way to share The Gospel with freshness, vitality and joy!
